

Elsen School Song

Laugh, love and learn
In a place we can be what we want to be
Laugh, love and learn
So we can be the best that we're destined to be

The road of life has many turns
But, with friends like these we'll be sure to see

Honour and truth, determination
Will take us where we want to be.

In days to come we may be,
Trav' lling far and across the sea
Elsen days may be a distant haze
But our heart's where our mem'ries will be.

So....Raise your voice and sing it loud
Our school is a place of which we can be proud

Honesty, integrity, they will be found
In a place where love abounds.

Honesty, integrity, they will be found
In a place - where - love - a - bounds.
